Beginning Notes:

If you have a Plus ChatGPT account, you're all set!

However, if you're on a free account, keep in mind that there's a message limit for custom GPTs that resets every few hours. So, you might not be able to try all the bots at once.

You've hit the Free plan limit for GPT-4o.

Responses will use another model until your limit resets in 2 minutes.

Don't worry—once the limit resets, you can start your conversations again!

These GPT bots can help with different tasks you need to do.

For example, Vinnie, the Virtual Assistant, can organize your tasks and answer questions from your team or clients.

Hey! I need some help with editing our podcast. Do you have any suggestions for a good AI editing tool?

For podcast editing with AI tools, here are some great options:

1. Descript: This is an all-in-one audio and video editing tool that integrates AI to make editing easier. You can edit your podcast by editing the transcription, which automatically adjusts the audio. It also includes tools for noise reduction, filler word removal, and multi-track editing.

2. Adobe Podcast (formerly Project Shasta): This tool uses AI for high-quality audio enhancement, background noise removal, and transcription. It's perfect for users who want to clean up audio quickly.

3. Auphonic: Known for its AI-driven post-production, Auphonic optimizes audio levels, reduces noise, and improves overall sound quality automatically.

These tools are intuitive and save time for podcasters by simplifying complex audio editing tasks.

Can you optimise my website for SEO?

https://www.dariuslukas.academy

Searched 1 site ⌄

To optimize your website for SEO, several strategies can be employed:

1. Keyword Optimization: Incorporate high-performing, relevant keywords across your homepage, product pages, and blogs to rank higher in search engines. Use terms like "AI for business growth," "ChatGPT tools," or "AI productivity" naturally in your content and metadata.

2. Meta Descriptions and Tags: Ensure all pages have unique meta titles and descriptions that highlight your AI and ChatGPT offerings.

3. Internal Linking: Link related content within your site to guide users and improve page authority.

4. Improve Site Speed: Use tools like Google's PageSpeed Insights to reduce load times, ensuring smoother navigation.

On a scale of 1 to 10, how would you rate this email?

I would rate this email a solid 7/10.

It's clear, concise, and effectively highlights the core benefits of SkillForge's online courses, such as hands-on learning, expert guidance, and flexibility. The tone is motivating and supportive, aligning well with the brand's goals. However, here are a few suggestions to take it to the next level:

Strengths:

- Engaging Introduction: The opening sentence grabs attention and appeals directly to the reader's aspirations of advancing their tech career.

- Clear Value Proposition: It clearly outlines the key features of the courses (interactive projects, expert mentorship, and flexible scheduling).

- Special Offer: The mention of a discount provides a strong call to action, encouraging recipients to take advantage of the promotion.

Areas for Improvement:

1. Personalization: Addressing the reader by name can increase engagement. Adding something like "Hi [First Name]" at the beginning would make it feel more personal.

Can you rewrite it and make it a solid 10?

With these 30 bots, you can build a comprehensive social media strategy, create engaging content for your platforms, promote your business, and brainstorm new ideas for product development. Plus, you can use them for internal tasks like answering client questions and organizing data.

What makes custom GPTs different from a regular ChatGPT window?

With ChatGPT, you usually have to feed it a good amount of information and prompts to help it understand what you want before you can start building anything.

But custom GPTs are different. They already come with information and are trained on different topics like Marketing, Social Media, or Sales. They come with Custom Instructions and Knowledge Files, making them personalized and ready to use right away.

PRO TIPS:

✅ Here's a simple way to make sure your bots use the right tone of voice:

1. Open your ChatGPT interface and select the bot you want to work with.
2. Upload a PDF with some of your writing so the bot can pick up on your tone.
3. Ask the bot to describe your tone of voice based on the text.
4. Once it understands your tone, you can ask it to create posts, write newsletters, or improve your texts in that style.

☑ The bots can communicate with each other.

 You can use "@" to switch between GPTs in the same conversation.

For example, if you're using a Blog Writing GPT to create a blog post, you can then switch to another GPT and ask it to turn that post into an Instagram caption.
